RIVER STEAMER BURNED; PASSENGERS ALL ESCAPE.

Which Was Destroyed Near Tiptonville, Ill., Is Missing. REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Cairo, Ill., March 10.-The White Collar Line, Steamer Sunshine, was burned to the water's edge at Burrus Landing

8 o'clock this morning.

The passengers and crew had barely time to escape with their lives. They lost all their effects, as nothing was saved, A negro deckhand is reported missing and it is supposed that he was drowned. The boat was just making the landing, when the fire was discovered. It is supposed to have started from a stove in the engine-room. The flames spread rapidly, and soon enveloped the boat, which idly, and soon enveloped the boat, which was consumed with all its contents. The hull alone was saved.

The Sunshine left Cairo at 4:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Memphis. She had a good freight trip and a fair passenger list. The passengers are now at Tipton-ville, waiting to be sent to their desimations.

The boat was built at Brownsville, Partin 182. She belonged to the Memphis and Cincinnati Packet Company, Captain S. C. McIntyre was her master.

White Men in Place of Negroes. REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Vicksburg, Miss., March 18.—It is understood here to-day that Vicksburg steamboatmen will follow the action of the St. Louis packets and employ white labor instead of negro roust-abouts.

Since the opening of the season the negroes have refused to work unless almost double wages were paid. The movement is expected to spread all along the lower river.

LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

Native Supply Light-Beef Cattle Steady-Sheep Close Firm. NATIVE CATTLE - Beef Steers-The native supply was light, and, with trains lets in arriving, the trade during the morning was quiet, though there was scarcely anything available in the steer line for buyers to begin operations n. Only a load or so were available, with but a few that were of decent flesh.

The bulk of the steers arrived late. A few

BEEF AND BUTCHER STEERS. Butcher Cattle-The supply in the butcher de-partment was only fair and did not include any-thing during the morning outside of a few cows that were desirable. However, the demand, white not briek, was strong enough to take care of the few on sale.

SHEEP - Asiain the majority of the receipts of sheep were shipped in by local slanghteress to fill urgent orders, they not being alie trees to fill urgent orders, they not being alie trees as were them here during the basi week. The effectings for sale included very few mative sheep and lambis and anything like choice lambs were very scarce. There was no material change to the market all decent mution stock finding resilves as a steady to strong prices but haif, fat kinds, especially thin Western lambs and yearlings, meet with a very noor demand and are hard to sell santiafactorily. The market for good stock is on the highest basis for many months and buyers are willing and anxious to nurchase several times the number they have been estime during the mast few weeks.

HOGS-Chily a fair supply of hogs arrived, the receipts amounting to around 5.50 head and, while they averaged fairly good in quality, there was not near as many good heavy hogs on sale, as on Wednesday. The offerings also included a liberal number of pigz, a good many of which were on the common order.

Conditions were intravorable to sellers and huyers were lery hearish, consequently the lower than the best time Westlay close or lic lower than the best time Westlay close or lic lower than the best time Westlay close or lice lower than the best time Westlay close or lice lower than the best time Westlay close or lice lower than the set time was always as much as possible. AND TWO WORKMEN HURT.

cued From Ruins of New Struc-

yesterday afternoon as the result of the course of erection at No. 584 DeBallviers evenue. The heavy wind which prevalled is given as the cause of the col-

Charles Dorste, 50 years old, of No. 2139 Oregon avenue, and Harvey English, 45 years old, of No. 2501 Lawton avenue, were years old, of No. 2501 Lawton avenue, were working on the roof of the building at the time of the collapse.

When the crash came all four walls of the building fell. Dorste and English were caught under the bricks.

After several minutes of hard work both men were taken from under the ruins of the building. Dorste was unconscious. At the City Hospital it was found that Dorste was suffering from a fracture of the right ankle, serious contusions of the hips and body, a sprained arm and several painful scalp wounds. His condition was pronounced serious, English sustained several scalp wounds and a sprained right arm.

Henry S. Peters of No. 3025 Texas avenue is the contractor who was recting the building. An investigation as to the cause of the collapse of the building was made by the police, who reported that it was due to the heavy wind.

The following occers of the North St. Louis Business Men's Association were installed last night at Social Turner Hall, corner of Thirteenth and Monroe streets: J. H. Gundlach, president; James Clausen, first vice president; H. A. Martin, second vice president, and J. H. Commerich, secretary.
